In loving Memory of Mrs Sheila Moulds.

The Society records with deep gratitude the outstanding contribution of Sheila Moulds, whose vision, dedication and musical expertise were instrumental in the foundation and success of All Souls' Amateur Operatic Society.

Sheila was a founding member of the society and Musical Director from 1960 to 2009, a position she held with distinction for nearly fifty years and then, upon retirement, became an Honorary President.

Throughout her long tenure, Sheila inspired generations of members with her musicianship and commitment to excellence. Her leadership laid the foundations upon which the Society continues to thrive.

The Society honours her memory with sincere appreciation and lasting respect.
